E. W. Crooks, who is assisting S. D. Humphrey in his search for his brother L. E. Humphrey of Fayetteville, W. Va., received word from Ogden yesterday that a man answering to the des-cription of the missing man had been seen in the Junction City. Mr. Crooks and Mr. Humphrey went to Ogden last svening and learned that such a man had been at some of the hotels and had complained of his head. Some of the firemen at the department also remembered seeing a man who looked very much like a picture of the missing man that was shown them. The offi-ters along the line from Ogden to Sac-ramento have been notified to keep a lookout for the wanderer.

The explosion of yesterday at the Short Line depot proved not to be as much of an explosion as was imagined, for of the 1,400 pounds of giant powder stored in that car only about 50 pounds "went off," Had the entire contents gone off, the damage would have been very great; and the explan-ation is that the great bulk of the powder not being confined, it burned with-out exploding. The floor of the car was not destroyed, and several barrels of oil were not burned. The detona tion wake up people five miles away, and two east bench girls thought the day of judgment had come, and Ga-briel was blowing his trumpet. The loss was confined to the car and its
